Dear Friends of Hallwalls,

This year marks a significant turning point for Hallwalls. We celebrated 50 years together, honoring the artists and community who built this space and kept it alive. Now, I step into the role of Executive Director with gratitude and excitement, ready to begin a new chapter with you.

Artist-run spaces are rare. Many don't survive beyond a few years. Hallwalls is different. For half a century, we've stood strong because of one simple truth: people like you continue to show up. You believe in fearless art, and you've made it possible for Hallwalls to remain one of the few long-standing artist-run spaces in the country.

Our future depends on your constant support. Together, we can make sure Hallwalls stays alive as a space where artists can create freely and where our community can experience art that challenges, inspires, and connects us.

Let's keep Hallwalls going, together. Make your Annual Appeal donation online or by check before the end of 2025.

With gratitude,
Parrish Gibbons
